

Ms. Alfreda Hammonds

March 21, 1959 - October 16, 2023

Alfreda Hammonds entered this world sharing her space with her fraternal twin, Alfonso on Saturday, March 21, 1959. Claiming the title of the first born granddaughter, of the legacy of Hosie and Lewis Hammonds. Born to the parents of Maggie Jean Hammonds and the Late JT Walker.

Loving known as Freda by her family and friends. If you wanted a thought-provoking conversation then you wanted to talk to Freda, educated at Wadsworth Grade School, Hyde Park Career Academy and Kennedy King College where she earned her associate degree in Pharmacy Technology. She did an internship at Walgreens, also working at Home Health Care, Fannie Mae, Kmart, Sears, First Aid Nurse, Chicago Board of Education and National Bank of Chicago.

Freda received the Baptism of God at an early age at Apostolic Church of God, Chicago, IL. She loved serving in her church as an usher and enjoyed Biblical studies. She loved her family, music, good food and a great conversation. She enjoyed playing tennis in high school. Her latest favorite gospel songs were – “He knows my name” by Tasha Cobbs, “Goodness of God” by CeCe Winans, “Do it for me” by Zacardi Cortez.
