“ Lots of fun memories with Barbara, and my sister Tine, back in the day 😊 We were definitely connected thru family literally. Barbretta as we use to call her, was a beautiful soul. May you rest in Heaven my sister 😇 and may God bless her children, and all of her siblings, and other family members not mentioned. I will continue to pray for the family 🙏 that the Lord give you all the strength you need, in a time such as this. My condolences to the family, love you all ❤️❤️❤️

Bobetta is what I use to call her. She was our beautiful chocolate drop with the beautiful hair. She came to visit me in my first real apartment for a week. She was 17 and I was 23. My Uncle and Aunt wanted to make sure I took good care of her. We had a great time many young men wanted her number, but not on my watch. Then life happen and our lives went in different directions. I love you cousin forever. 🌹
