“ To see Delbert was to see sunshine and praise. His effervescent smile will be etched in the memories and hearts of those who knew and loved him. His unwavering faith and resounding words that echoed “we walk by faith and not by sight” are etched in the sound of our ears. We bid farewell to a true believer who has taken his heavenly rest, and we send words of comfort to his family with the love and peace of God.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Delbert at Ellsworth Junior College. What a great guy to know and to have had good times with. He was one of a kind with a great personality, so positive and always smiling. If you saw Delbert you saw John Isom, and if you saw John you saw Delbert. Everyone knew him and enjoyed him being around. He was so kind and thoughtful. If you were down in the dumps Delbert would always make you feel better. I can't believe Delbert is gone and I know the shock is even greater for you. I hope memories of the happy times you had together can be of some comfort during this incredibly difficult time. Delbert's old friend, Charlie Weaver

“ I can see Delbert walking through my parent’s door saying, “Praise the Lord saints!” And “God is good.”
Delbert was a LOYAL friend to my dad... forever supporting his dreams and aspirations. He was a kind man who always wore a big smile. He will be greatly missed.

Peace, love, and comfort to Carolyn, Misty, Brandy, Ashley, the grands and all of his family and friends.
