

Laziza L. Akins

March 22, 1981 - December 26, 2022

Zita attended Edwardsville schools. She was outgoing and had many friends. In her free time, Zita loved to enjoy a get-together. She was the biggest fan of Prince & Michael Jackson. You could always see her dressing up, dancing, and signing to the likes of those two. She was a dedicated impersonator & performer. Zita was all about family. She had a special relationship with everyone she was close to. She is a warm and giving spirit. Zita was a doting mother and had incredible love for her children. In addition to her biological children, she was a second mother to her niece & nephew Antonia & Steffan Sr. She had several other “adopted” children as well.

Zita is preceded in death by her Father Steven Akins, Grandmother Guadalupe Coco Akins, Grandfather Gilbert “Sonny” Telford, Nephew Loyal Dozier Jr., Niece A’zya Akins, Nephew Jessiah Barnes.

Zita is survived by her Mother Rhonda Bradford (Larry) of Edwardsville , her loving companion Ronald Myers Sr. , her children Alliyah, Alexis, Ronald Jr., Amoray, and Montez of South Roxana & Granddaughter Aurora Myers. Two loving sisters Estefanita Akins (Poncho) of Edwardsville & Amber Barnes (Jemal) of Belleville. Nieces & Nephews Antonia, Steffan Sr. of Edwardsville & Devontee, Daunte of Belleville. Favorite Cousin, Tiffanie “Wibbie” Ellis of Edwardsville. Best Friend Angie Willis (Casey) of Collinsville She also leaves to cherish her Grandmother Mary Telford of Edwardsville and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Family and Friends.
