“ Ms McLemore I can say I have know my whole life my fond memories of her was being the most cheerful cook at West Junior High asking me daily how was i doing and my mother. I remember her from St. John's church being a faithful servant for the Lord every Sunday. She modeled for me how hard work and dedication to God leads to a quality life on earth my deepest condolences to the McLemore family Tina is be a blessing to be your friend for over 5 decades you friend Rian Watts from Los Angeles God Bless your family in this difficult time
