

Opal J. Price-Pleasant

July 31, 1927 - September 30, 2022

Opal Jane York was born to Edward Lee York and Helen Spencer in Fayetteville, Arkansas on July 31, 1927. She was raised by her grandmother Mandy Milly Jane Barker and attended school in Cane Hill, Arkansas.

Opal accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age.

Opal lived in Saint Louis, Missouri. She loved people and taking care of them. She worked in the nursing field and volunteered as a Qualified Senior Companion. She loved to travel and loved sharing her stories.

Opal was blessed with 95 years. She loved God. She was a faithful member of Berean Seven-Day Adventist Church in Saint Louis, Missouri for many years. She spent most of her time praying, studying her lessons and reading her Bible. She served on the Usher and Deaconess Board. She loved her church family and friends dearly and talked about them all of the time.

Opal was preceded in death by her parents, Edward Lee York and Helen Spencer; sister, Marie Culph; grandmother, Mandy Milly Jane Barker; grandfather, Faith Spencer; aunts, Nola Mae Spencer and Christine Spencer; uncles, Allen Spencer and Earl Spencer; granddaughter she raised, Sherry Sanders and grandson she raised, Winslow Price.

Opal married Winston L.C. Price (deceased) in Saint Louis, Missouri and later married John Wesley Pleasant (deceased) in Saint Louis, Missouri.

Opal passed on September 30, 2022. She was a beautiful, independent and classy lady. She moved with dignity and grace. She had a fun sense of humor and was active even up to her final days. She will be missed.

She leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Carolyn Willey-Price of St. Louis, MO; niece, Tina Lester of Minneapolis, MN; nephew, Robert Lester of Memphis, TN; caregiver, Tammy Smith-Williams; grandchildren, Chelsea Sanders, Marissa Price, Ta-jah Richardson, Trinity Price, Christopher Price and Erica Price; great-grandchildren, Jasmine Price, Joselyn Price, Jada Thomas Price, Toriana Patterson and Jaylen Price and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
