“ Orlando had a unique personality, and would make you laugh even if you were steaming mad. He would effortlessly take care of you and feed you if he could. He had dreams of having his own food truck one day. Life is precious and he will be missed. Rest now, and one day we will all reunite. Sending love and light to all those who loved him.

“ Lando was one of those amazing souls who just knew how to make you feel special. He was so polite and sweet. He contacted me on every holiday and birthday, sometimes even before my own children did. His loss is devastating. The world has lost a true friend.

“ Orlando was a beloved friend that no matter how long time separated us, we always found ourselves right back at home with one another. He made a strong and positive impression on my little boy as well and it is so saddening to know he is gone from all of our lives. It was beautiful to have him in it. He will forever be our family. Any man who loves his mother like he did gets to be celebrated.
