“ To the family of Richard [Pig] Hamilton, I give Y'all my sympathy and prayers to God for strength & peace on your behalf. The 1st memory was him coaching football teams my lil brothers, Mitchell & Joseph Musgrow played on. Years later when my friends & me hung out in Brother Ben's, he & more as a group, Brothers of Reality, were hosts of upscale sets. He coached a group of us in a Lady's softball team; but I wasn't able to stay on it. Later in life if I ran into Pig, it'd be at when Tommie Lee & I would be at various churches functions. He was in a group at my cousin's [Danny] church, where he led songs 🎵 of praise to God. Though I didn't know him personally, I'd always hear about him being a great dad & a real nice dude. Sleep in peace Pig.

Hi family. I'm one of Richard's first cousins. His mom, aunt Lovie, was my dad's youngest sister. My dad was Timothy Williams. I was raised by their parents--Hosie and Addie Williams. We all loved Richard "pig", but God loved him more. Rest on cousin, until we meet again. Humbly submitted by Linda Ann (Williams) Smith
