“ I didn't know Ronnie personally but knew him from always walking around East Alton community. I met his mom at a local convenience store. He was a nice guy, my Condolences to his Family

“ I really never knew the gentleman. Our paths crossed early Spring this year when it was cold. I saw him at McDonalds off Broadway. I offered him a fresh off the grill double quarter pounder. He smiled and said thank you. He had a sweet soul and kindered spirit. He didn't have anything but his bright smile. You are in heaven now young man. There are still beautiful days ahead of you now that you are with our savior Lord Jesus Christ.

my dad he was a very nice person and it makes me sad a lot because I haven't seen my dad since I was one and that hurts me and every since I Heard he was gone I broke down immediately because it's like man I just seen him one time that's it I did not even get a chance to give him a hug or say that I love him and I was just on my way back to see him but he was nowhere to be found he always loved me he would always take me wherever he went when I was just a little baby and it hurt me because at the funeral I was so broken down to see him in a casket I never thought that I would live to see him laying in a casket so I kept telling my self " he is just sleeping" but that is actually how he sleeps and on veterans day it looked like someone was trying to dig him up as I was putting something on his grave I was also gonna put something on his tree witch is all the way in east Alton but thanks.
