“ Prayers and condolences for my schoolmate, Blaine Everage and his family. Tam was one of the sweetest women I knew, a great mother, friend, and neighbor. My grandmother and her grandparents were great friends and it is pleasure to have known her all my life. No more pain.

“ We both shared our illnesses and we talked all the time at work. We both went thru a lot with treatments..... we shared stories and we had a lot in common, personal stories, family talk and she helped me a lot on the job..... she always encouraged me and never seemed to want me to encourage her.... She just always wanted to know if I was alright..... when I ask her she would say “I’m blessed.” In deed she was..... an angel and my ‘Ram in the bush’ when things got rough at work or she tell me how to tackle heavy task..... she was a great worker! A great friend at work! We loved our talks and friendship. An angel from up above.... That she was!! Now she’s resting in the arms of Jesus!!!!!!!!!!

“ I met Tammy about 25 years ago at my Sister, Glendoria and Linwood Elliott's wedding. Tammy impressed me because she was very kind, friendly and nice. My family has been praying for the family for God to strengthen and comfort you all. He will do it, He did it for me when my husband passed away six years ago. He will be a friend for you if you are friendless. He will be everything for you if you ask in prayer. Special prayer for the husband, the children and entire family. Rest in Heaven, Tammy. I love my brother-in-law, he is a blessing to the Bates family. God bless you all. Msnry Gloria Bates-Cole. Church of the Living God, P.G.T. #3. Decatur,IL.
